WHAT YOU'LL GET

At Vanport Media you'll get friendly, knowledgeable assistance with your work, whether you need a proofread before laying out the final product, copyediting of a completed manuscript, or help developing your story. The philosophy at Vanport Media is simple: be helpful. My aim is to provide useful service to as many people as I can, to aid you as you bring your words into the world. Having an experienced editor in your corner can make all the difference. You'll get pleasant, experienced, supportive feedback and service, with this goal always in mind: to have your writing make a memorable impact on your reader.

HOW I'LL HELP

It's all about helping you make the best author-audience connection possible. Fiction, non-fiction, academic, journalistic and Web writing, poetry — all are welcome for editing. If your work is ready for publication, book design and layout services are also available. I can get your book ready for traditional printing or eBook distribution. Confidentiality is guaranteed — I will treat both you and your work with respect and professionalism.

GETTING STARTED

Electronic submissions are preferred and can be sent as e-mail attachments. Microsoft Word (Mac or Windows), OpenOffice, RTF and plain text documents are all acceptable. Work can also be surface mailed, but do not send your original manuscript — mail a copy, please, as it will be physically marked up. All manuscripts should be typed, double-spaced and in a 12-point serif font, such as Times.
